
Risk & Sustainability Policy

Morson Group's existence directly depends on its economic results and on the continuous Improvement of its performance in all fields.
Health, Safety, Information Security, Business Continuity and the respect of the Environment are integral parts of Morson's fundamental performance.
As such the Morson Risk and Sustainability (R&S) department continually work towards the establishment of advanced formal management systems.

Company Commitments

- We strive to go beyond the mere fulfillment of the legal obligations, which concern R&S. We identify and aspire to meet other R&S related requirements to which our organisation voluntarily engages, and are committed to the continuous improvement of our performance in all areas of R&S.
- We will establish a formal management system to protect people, sensitive information and the environment.
- We endeavor to evaluate the impact and risk of every aspect of our activities and products.
- All actual or suspected risks will be reported and investigated
- We set targets for R&S improvements and measure achievements in order to continually improve our performance and face future challenges by all reasonably practical means.
- We make our stakeholders, all people working for or on behalf of our organisation and the public aware of our R&S Policy.
- We provide our employees with appropriate training and encourage personal initiatives.
- The involvement of all employees, not only the management, in the adoption and implementation of this policy, is an important criterion in the evaluation of individual performance and results.
- Our subcontractors' and suppliers' commitment to respecting this Policy is a relevant criterion for their selection.

Implementation

- All Morson Group functions, national entities and subsidiaries are responsible for the consistent implementation of this policy.
- They guarantee the establishment of appropriate implementation directives and the availability of the necessary resources, especially with regard to personnel and the suitability of their skills for the job.
- Periodic assessments will be performed to monitor the implementation of the R&S policy.
- This policy will be reviewed regularly.
